Workplace Pensions

To encourage people to save more for their retirement (the full basic State Pension for 2019/20 is currently £129.20 a week for a single person), the Government now requires employers to “automatically” enrol their qualifying workforce into a contributory workplace pension scheme. This is called “auto enrolment”.

The Company has chosen The People’s Pension as our auto-enrolment pension provider and subject to any Postponement Period (see below) qualifying workers will be automatically enrolled, although individuals can choose to opt out, or indeed opt in (e.g. during a Postponement Period).

Postponement Period

Because of the often short term/project based nature of our industry, and in accordance with the legislation, the Company has elected to postpone applying auto-enrolment to individual engagements until a three month period from the start of the relevant engagement period. This is known as the “Postponement Period”. This means that, unless individuals request to “opt in” (see below), those on engagements which are shorter than the Postponement Period will not automatically be assessed for auto-enrolment and those with engagements extending beyond the Postponement Period, will not be assessed until it has expired.

How will it affect you?

If your engagement continues past the end of your Postponement Period, we will assess you to determine which category of worker you fall under and therefore your eligibility for auto-enrolment.

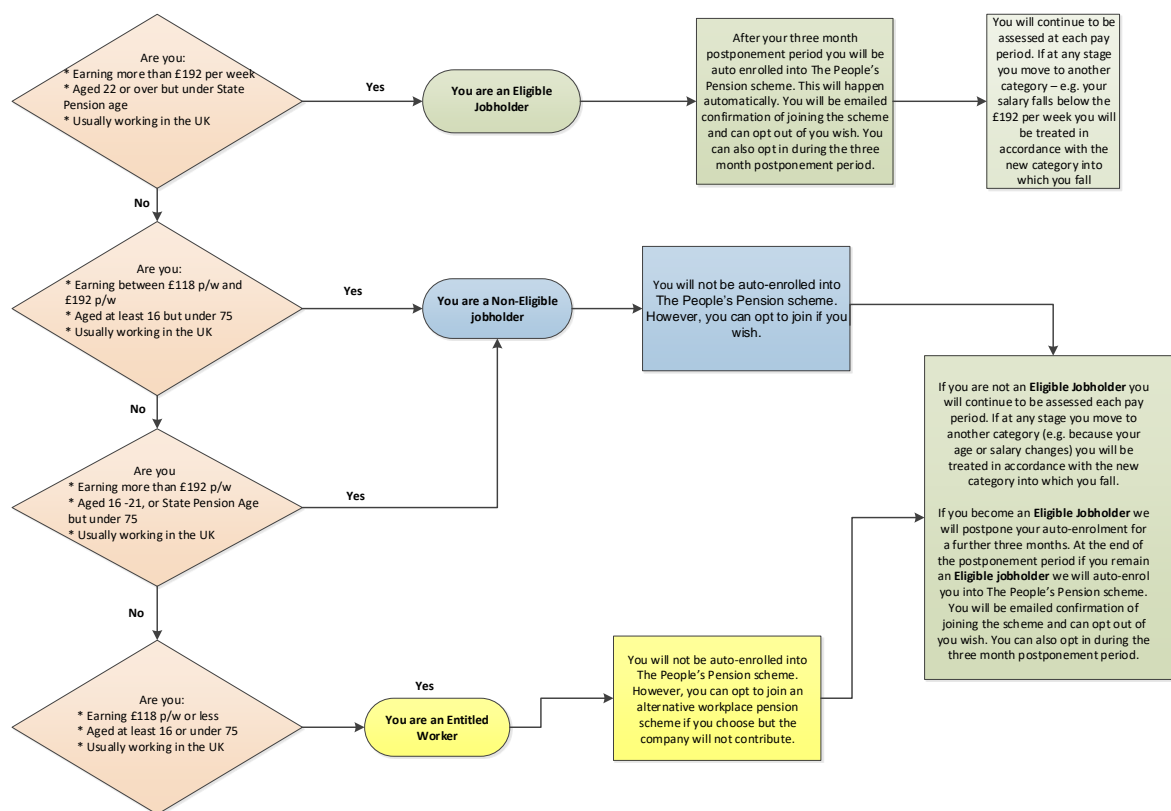

The flowchart overleaf illustrates the three categories and whether auto-enrolment applies to you.

Deductions and contributions

If auto-enrolment does indeed apply to you, pension deductions will automatically be taken from your earnings (subject to certain limits) and paid by us into your personal scheme with The People’s Pension.

The amount deducted from your salary will be based on a percentage (currently 5%) of all your qualifying earnings between £118 and £962 a week (in 2018/19), so the current maximum deduction is £42.2 per week. The Company will contribute 3%.

Auto-enrolment Eligibility criteria – 2019/20

If you are an Eligible Jobholder;

- After your three month postponement period you will be auto-enrolled into our The People's Pension scheme (the "People's Pension") and they will contact you directly with further information about their scheme.
- The current contribution of 5% of your Qualifying Earnings will be deducted from your pay and paid into your People's Pension every pay period. The Company will also contribute to your People's Pension (currently also based on 3% of your Qualifying Earnings). Qualifying Earnings are your earnings between £118 and £962 a week (in 2019/20).
- Opt Out - You can choose to "opt out" of the People's Pension if you wish, but you can only do this after you have been auto-enrolled (i.e. we cannot prevent the initial auto-enrollment even if you have opted out on a previous engagement with us)
- Opt In - You also have the right to "opt in" join the scheme before you are auto-enrolled i.e. during your three month Postponement period. You can do this by contacting The People's Pension in writing to confirm your wish to opt in. The letter must be signed by you or, if sending it electronically, it has to contain the phrase, "I confirm I personally submitted this notice to join a workplace pension scheme". You will be sent further information and confirmation of being enrolled from People's Pensions.
- You'll find more information about the People's Pension at www.thepeoplespension.co.uk
- You will continue to be assessed each pay period and if at any stage you are deemed to have moved to another category (e.g. because your age or salary changes) you will be treated in accordance with the new category into which you fall.

If you are a Non-Eligible Jobholder

- We will not auto enrol you because you do not meet the criteria set by the Government.
- You will continue to be assessed each pay period and if at any stage you are deemed to have moved to another category (e.g. because your age or salary changes) you will be treated in accordance with the new category into which you fall.
- However you may elect to “Opt In” into the People’s Pension if you wish, using the same method set out above for Eligible Jobholders. If you do the same Qualifying Earnings and pay deductions, as well Company contributions will apply as if you were an Eligible Jobholder. You’ll find more information about the Plan at www.thepeoplespension.co.uk

If you are an Entitled Worker

- We will not auto enrol you because you do not meet the criteria set by the Government.
- You will continue to be assessed each pay period and if at any stage you are deemed to have moved to another category (e.g. because your age or salary changes) you will be treated in accordance with the new category into which you fall.
- However, you can ask us to enrol you into an alternative workplace pension arrangement (not the People’s Pension), but please note that such a pension arrangement would not involve any contribution from the Company.
